

St Saviour's Church

20 June 2021 - Trinity 3 / Ord Time 12

'The conversation between Jesus [in today's gospel] and the disciples in the boat shows a gap on both sides between expectation and reality. They are surprised that he is not aware of the danger that they are in; but then they are amazed because he has power over wind and waves. He questions why they are afraid, as they should have understood by now (have they "still" no faith?). His true identity, we were reminded earlier in chapter 4, is communicated only to the disciples. Confronted with their own mortality, they cry for help. And he provides it. But he is unsurprisingly surprised that they didn't know that his help would always be there for them.'

FIRST READING

The First reading is from the book of Job

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:
 Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate? Come thus far, I said, and no farther: here your proud waves shall break

This is the word of the Lord.

Job 38

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

O give thanks to the Lord, for his love endures for ever.

Some sailed to the sea in ships to trade on the mighty waters. These men have seen the Lord's deeds, the wonders he does in the deep.

For he spoke; he summoned the gale, tossing the waves of the sea up to heaven and back into the deep; their souls melted away in their distress.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress. He stilled the storm to a whisper: all the waves of the sea were hushed.

They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired. Let them thank the Lord for his love, for the wonders he does for men.

Psalm 107

SECOND READING

A reading from the 2nd letter of Paul to the Corinthians.

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

This is the word of the Lord.

2 Cor 5

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION:

Alleluia, alleluia!
 A great prophet has appeared among us;
 God has visited his people.
 Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Mark.

On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, 'Let us go across to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great gale arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, 'Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?' He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, 'Peace! Be still!' Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, 'Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?' And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, 'Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.
